
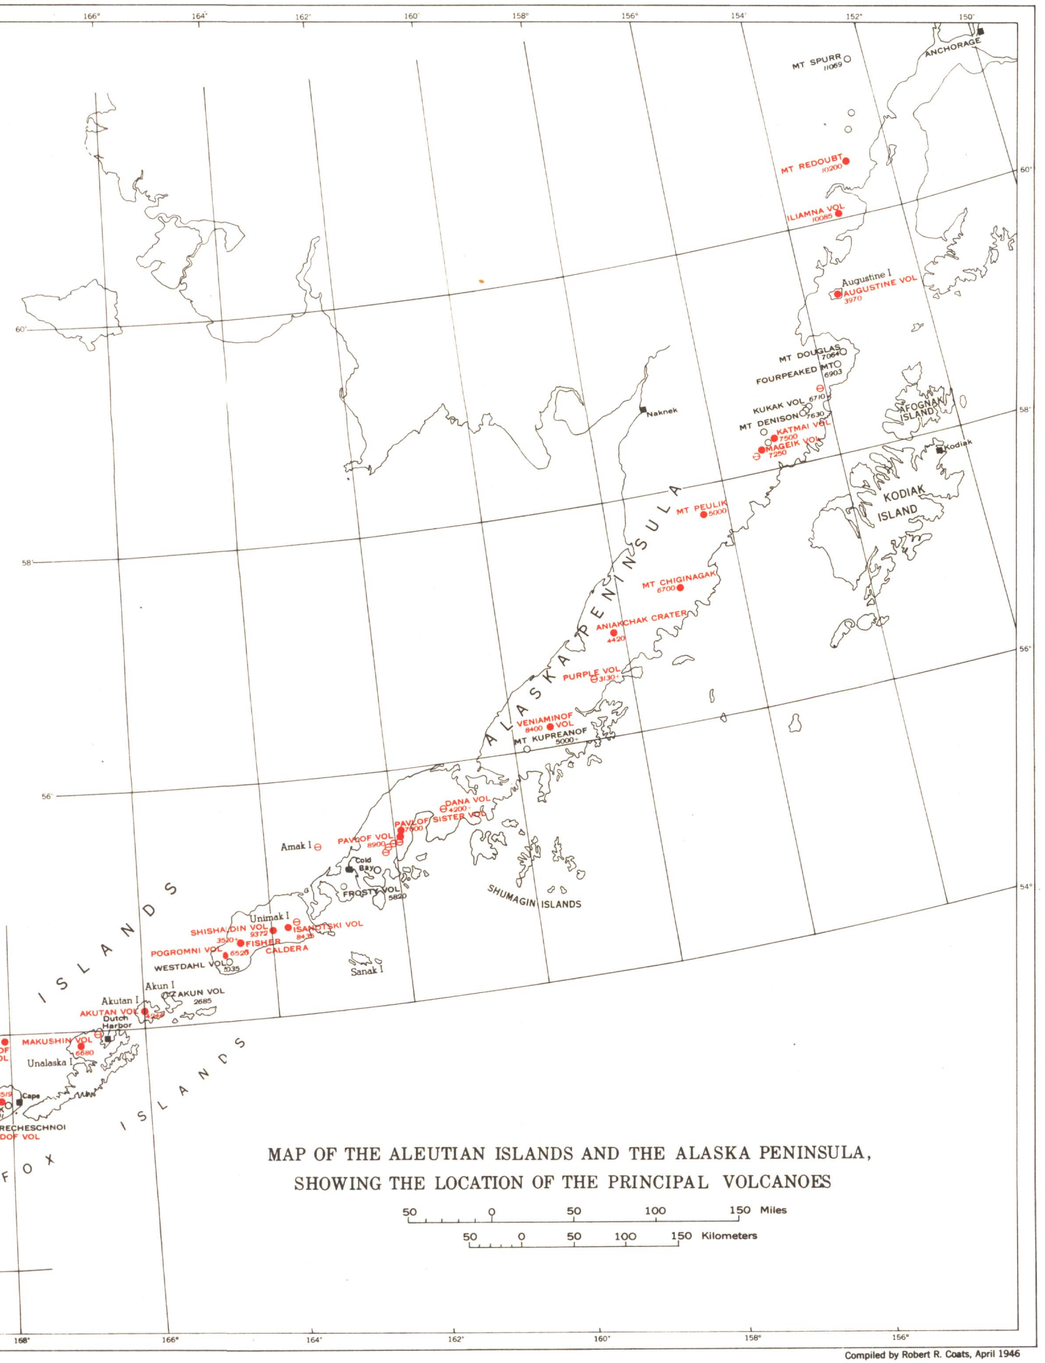
EXPLANATION

○ Extinct volcano
(Includes some deeply eroded mountains of probable volcanic origin)

⊖ Volcano, probably active in post-glacial time
(Includes well-formed volcanic mountains for which no activity has been recorded but which may have been active in historic time —since 1760 A. D.)

● Volcano, active since 1760 A. D.



MAP OF THE ALEUTIAN ISLANDS AND THE ALASKA PENINSULA, SHOWING THE LOCATION OF THE PRINCIPAL VOLCANOES

50 0 50 100 150 Miles

50 0 50 100 150 Kilometers

Compiled by Robert R. Coats, April 1946
Revised April 1949