

Office of Emergency Management

Robert Fitch

Presentation given to the Alaska Seismic Hazards Safety Commission
December 5, 2006

Who we are

- Heather Handyside
Director of Homeland Security & Emergency Management
- RaeShaun Bibbs
Public Information Manager
- Craig Fetterman
Grant and Budget Manager
- Rob Fitch
Exercise and Special Projects Manager
- Vince McCoy
Emergency Program Manager
- Kattaryna Stiles
Plans and Policy Manager
- Nikki Stokoe
Senior Office Associate

What we do

- Plan
- Prepare
- Execute
- Recover

Plan

- Identify needs of the community in times of disasters, to include mitigation of those threats to the Municipality

Prepare

- Train
- Drill
- Exercise

Execute

- Rescue and shelter operations

Recover

- Recovery operations is designed to get people and the infrastructure back to work
- Work with State and Federal Agencies

Programs

- Emergency Operations Plan
- Vulnerable Population Data Base
- Congregate Care Centers
- Neighborhood Emergency Watch
- Damage Assessment Training
- Continuation of Operations Plan
- Mass Fatality Plan

The EOC

Emergency Operations Center

Mission: to direct the response and recovery operations for the Municipality of Anchorage

EOC stations

- Engineering – Damage Assessment, Utilities
- Community Support-Congregate Care, Vulnerable Populations, Hospitals, Mental Health , Animal Care
- Fire/ Rescue- Fire, EMS, Police
- Finance- Cost Recovery, Legal
- Planning- Advance Planning, Situation Analysis
- Logistics-Transportation, Supply, Resource Status

EOC Exercise

- Scenario-earthquake/ landslide
- Three Shifts/ 50 people each
- Response
- Sheltering needs
- Planning needs

EOC Exercise Theme

- Congregate Care Center
Sheltering needs for a large population to include medical, mental and financial assistance

Questions?

Rob Fitch

Exercise and Special Projects Manager

Office of Emergency Management

Municipality of Anchorage

343-1404

fitchra@muni.org