DESCRIPTION OF SURFICIAL GEOLOGIC MAP UNITS

The map shows the distribution of surficial geologic and geomorphic units in the area of the Tanana River floodplain, as well as some of the major bedrock outcrops along the floodplain. The units are defined based on field observations and analysis of aerial photographs. The map units are color-coded according to the surficial geologic units legend provided.

Alaska Division of Geological & Geophysical Surveys

SURFICIAL-GEOLOGIC MAP, ALASKA HIGHWAY CORRIDOR, PART OF THE TANACROSS B-6 QUADRANGLE, ALASKA

by R.D. Reger, T.D. Hubbard and G.A. Carver

2011